THE ADMINISTRATOR'S ALLEY

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Dies Sanctissimi Corporis et Sanguinis Domini Iesu Christi); traditionally known as Corpus Christi. Today, we are reminded of what makes us different from every other Christian community in the world; that “In the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist, ‘the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained.’” As Catholics, we believe that the same Risen Christ who reigns in Heaven at the right hand of the Father, dwells in every tabernacle of the world.

The greatest pandemic we face during these days is not COVID-19, it is that only 30% of Catholics believe in the doctrine of transubstantiation and the real presence of our Eucharistic Lord. However, prior to the Second Vatican Council, over 90% of Catholics believed in the real presence of Eucharistic Lord. This statistic should be shocking, although it should not be a surprise. Why do I say that? It is simple, following the Second Vatican Council the emphasis was focused primarily on the Mass as a meal, as a banquet; instead of the emphasis being on the sacrificial offering of Christ on Mount Calvary. The Catechism states, “The Holy Sacrifice, because it makes present the one sacrifice of Christ the Savior and includes the Church's offering” (CCC, 1330).

The sacrificial dimension was downplayed, the idea that the priest was the mediator between God and His people was almost never articulated. Holy Mass went from being sublime to being mundane. The vertical dimension (emphasis on God) was removed and replaced with the horizontal dimension (emphasis on the people). Tabernacles were moved off to the corner of sanctuaries to be replaced by the “presiders” chair. We no longer had God at the center of our churches (Christocentric) but rather we had replaced him with the priest (Anthropocentric). For a society that wanted to downplay the role of the priest and eliminate “clericalism” sure did a lot to emphasize the priest. Instead of singing polyphony and chant which raised our hearts and minds to God, it was now replaced with the guitar and “This little light of mine”. Bishops and priests sacked our churches by white-washing any of the beauty which existed, removing statues, and ripping out the communion rails. As a result, people were encouraged to start receiving communion in the hand while standing versus receiving communion on the tongue while kneeling. Priests often never preached about the difficult topics or about the truths of the faith. Individual confession was replaced with 'general absolution'. Why am I bringing up all these "issues"? Because we can see that our words and our actions have meaning!

There is a saying, "Lex Orandi, Lex Credendi, Lex Vivendi" (As we Worship, So we Believe, So we Live). Thankfully here at St. Denis, starting with Fr. Nick and continuing with Fr. Ben, there has been a "Restoration of all things in Christ" (St. Pius X); especially with regards to the liturgy. The Catechism, echoing Lumen Gentium says, "The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life." By restoring the way we act and speak, especially with regards to Divine Mysteries; I truly believe we will see a restoration of sacred. I would go so far as to say we will see an increase in the percentage of Catholics who believe in the real presence of Christ. Again, this is the "new springtime" I believe that has come to St. Denis.

By continuing the work of my predecessors, it is my goal that everything we do in the parish will be "intensely Eucharistic" to echo St. John Paul II in the Great Jubilee of 2000. As a result, I pray that in the near future, both the main sanctuary and the adoration chapel will undergo their own "divine renovation", making both spaces even more beautiful and inviting.

As we continue to become more of "a warm and welcoming, Christ-centred, Catholic community that answers the call to know, love, and serve God by spreading the Gospel through words and actions" we won't be able to help but see the fruits of our intensely Eucharistic love to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.
